

INT BAY RIDGE 7ELEVEN-DAY

A Group of young tan men with a short pale girl walks through the door.

the cashier is an Bengali American man BHATTI BALAL ,21, who is texting when listening to their apu jokes. He gives them what they came in for 4 packs of trojan petite,3 red bulls, and 2 frozen pizzas.

He looks at the sole female in the group and gets a wink back. His fantasy is interrupted by CHARLES CHANG, 24 being loud and calling him bhat-puu while blinded by the girl's cleavage.

They both now getting apu/asian bashed by the group of tan heads. Surprisingly a petite dark haired girl looking 13 with a id of 21 quiets them enough to pay for the items with a chase card.

Stunned by how fast she control the tan pack Charles runs to talk to her but get gets distracted by both a maxim mag and a playgirl mag on the shelf.

Finally Bhatti ends his shelf with taking a card out of his wallet while holding onto another.

CHARLES

what's that in your hand?

BHATTI

Nothing..just forget it

CHARLES

nah it seems to shady to be nothing (PRIES open bhatti's hand to grab the card)
uh huh Sephora

BHATTI

yea.what it is a sephora card?

CHARLES

Wow this is interesting I never noticed u have such a closet case side.

BHATTI

Hell no it is not like I want to have it.

CHARLES

then why u have it?

BHATTI

Sigh it is for my thesis for graduate school

Charles

what that is your best excuse for playing your own girlfriend ?

Bhatti

no wait don't say that the excuse I have this card is to understand women more.

Charles

really you need a card to understand women.

BHATTI

No going into a store like that without a card would make me look like a perv not like a social observer.

Charles

Nice you really into your work.

Bhatti

Yea I know my class starts in less than 45 minutes you using your grandma's car?.

Charles

Sure I will take Bhatt-pu just one thing

Bhatti

one thing stop with the corny ass nickname and I will do anything

Charles

Come to my late night show.

Smash cut to INT- 50 minutes passed/SUNY Downstate medical center the lecture hall is packed with pre medical students mostly in behavioral science. The light in the room is focused on the professor and near pitch black anywhere else.

Bhatti comes in 5 minutes late tripped a little on th stairs and erroenously landed on his crotch. In pain he tries to focus on the lecture.

Professor

The theme of your thesises is love what exactly is it? And what shapes or forms do it take? Through what circumstances cause it to be influenced? Race? Intelligence? Environment? Gender?. Whatever you choose you must research in depth both in textual and on the field information. Any questions

RANDOM FEMALE IN THE FRONT

so we have to research many flaws most prevalent in sexuality for both sexes and their effort in getting lovers. this seems to simple for us to do.

Professor

on the contrary it is the hardest thing for you people to do. Behavior science is not as straightforward as calculus which I myself failed infinite times.

( crowd laughs nervously)

also because it is the study of how random humans can be. Speaking of random I am now going to randomly pick someone to tell their idea for their thesis. You at the back.
( bhatti in the back)

Bhatti

Uh .. My thesis is about a lot of things

Professor

good for a vague statement that shows your wasting your parents money.

Bhatti

no it'[s just my work is more focused on the similarities we are share in love no matter where we come from or if we can pee standing up or not.

Professor

I see you must be interested in lifting the gender veil or studying gynandromorphs.

Bhatti

excuse for asking this but what the hell is Gynandromorphs?

Professor

ok class can u help me remind our fellow in the back what that is?

ENSEMBLE( besides Bhatti)

Trannies! Hermadrophites! Lady Gaga!

Professor

Yes the first two but the last one may or may not have a disco stick. So I assign you in the back the research of learning about gynandromorphs.

Bhatti

wait this is not what I signed up for my faith doesn't allow to go near those freaks.

Professor

Well if you want to be a doctor you will.

FADE TO EXT- 1st avenue in front of lucky chengs

the soundtrack opens with Whodini's freaks come out at night

A side view of Bhatti walking with a coat with latex gloves and sunglasses

His attire was more weird then of the many " women on the line" who were heavy makeup, latex suits and high heels. Most strange was their deep nyc accents.

MATCH CUT TO INT lucky chengs

Bhatti runs pass the strange and manly women and sits down next to a familiar beautiful woman

Bhatti
Hey you come here often?

WOMAN
Duh I work here but what's with the get up?

Bhatti

Woman

Bhatti
